

Living Eggs

12 eggs arrived in school in their incubator ready to hatch.

We were lucky enough to see some of the chicks hatching.

The children visited and held the chicks every day (and the adults too).

It was a lovely experience for all of us.